Bush and Ocean: Nature Conservation

Location: Hluhluwe, Kosi Bay & Sodwana Bay in Kwazulu Natal

Duration: 4 weeks

PART 1 - HLUHLUWE, ADVENTURE IN THE BUSH

Step into the wilderness of KwaZulu Natal and stay in a private reserve next to the famous Hluhluwe Imfolozi Game Reserve. In this vast Big Five area you combine adventure with meaningful work and gain valuable bush experience.

What you'll be doing:

- Conservation: contribute to nature conservation and learn how to protect ecosystems
- Wildlife monitoring: place camera traps, track animals and collect important data for research
- Bush education: learn to identify tracks and study plants, birds and reptiles up close
- Reptile workshops: get to know snakes, scorpions and spiders, including first aid guidance in case of a bite
- A unique opportunity to live and learn in the heart of nature while experiencing unforgettable bush adventures

PART 2 - KOSI BAY, DISCOVER THE COAST AND ESTUARY

Dive into the breathtaking coastal ecosystem of Kosi Bay, where nature and culture come together. Walk through the mangroves, snorkel among colourful fish and explore the lagoons by canoe. Together with our local guide Fanoë you will discover how this unique estuary functions and learn about the centuries-old Thonga fish traps.

What you'll be doing:

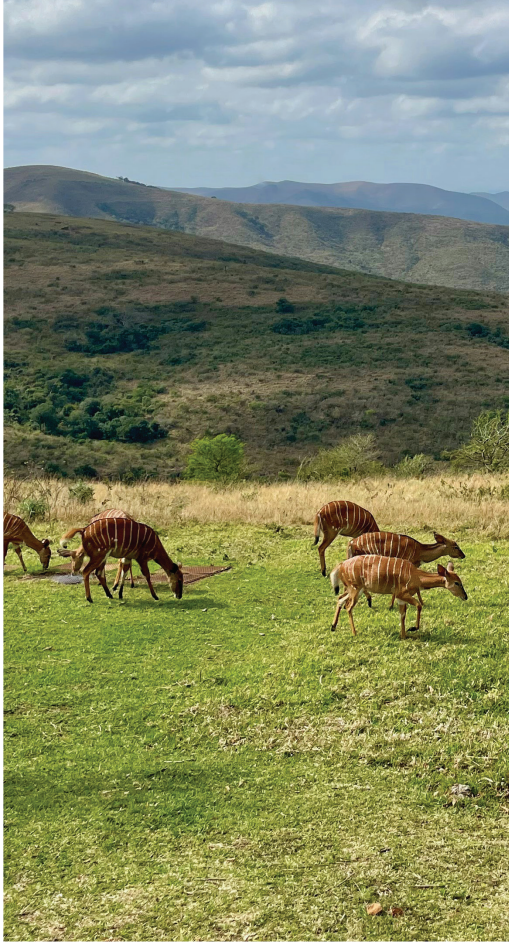

- Explore with Fanoë: discover the area together with our local expert
- Coast and estuary: learn all about the local flora, fauna and the ecosystem
- Thonga fish traps: experience how this centuries-old technique works and catch your own fish

DEEL 3 – SODWANA BAY: CHILL & ONTSPAN

Je verblijft in een gezellige lodge op loopafstand van het strand, waar je kunt ontspannen bij het zwembad of samen met anderen kunt bbq'en en socializen.

What you'll be doing:

- Relax: swim, cook together and enjoy the laid back atmosphere
- Snorkelling and diving: discover colourful coral reefs and beautiful marine life
- Beach: beach vibes, swimming, sun and stunning nature

ACCOMMODATION

Hluhluwe, Tented Camp in the bush

In Hluhluwe you stay in a private reserve at a cosy tented camp. You share a spacious tent with your travel companion and have access to a large outdoor kitchen and an open dining area with a welcoming campfire. Every two tents share a bush shower and a Western-style toilet. Nature is all around you, with duikers, nyala and bushbuck often moving quietly through the bushes. You can safely walk around the camp on your own, completely surrounded by the calm of the bush.

Kosi Bay, Bush Camp near the coast

In Kosi Bay you sleep in a simple but fully equipped tented camp tucked between the trees and close to the shoreline. The camp is cosy and peaceful, and it is the perfect base for your water and forest activities. You experience the charm of the bush with enough comfort for a pleasant stay.

Sodwana Bay, Relax in a Beach Lodge (self catering)

After your active days, Sodwana Bay is the ideal place to unwind. You stay in a comfortable lodge with a swimming pool, only a short walk from the beach. Take a refreshing swim, relax with a book or enjoy a calm stroll to the coast. A wonderful place to slow down and take in all your impressions.
